

Funeral and Dependency Benefits Claim Form

Please complete this form to make a claim for funeral (including burial and cremation) expenses and/or dependency benefits for a person who has died as a result of a transport accident.

Please provide the following information with your claim:

For the spouse or partner of the deceased and their children, please provide:

- A completed Dependants Statutory Declaration (see attached)
- A copy of the marriage certificate (if applicable)
- A copy of the children's birth certificates, not extracts (if applicable)
- Copies of the deceased's taxation returns or PAYG summaries for the previous two financial years (if available at time of submission)
- A letter from Centrelink confirming the amount, type and period of benefits received by the deceased and the spouse or permanent partner (if applicable)
- Evidence of financial dependency (i.e. copies of joint accounts, loans, household bills in either both names or individual names for the same address, insurance policies, property titles, investments, lease, wills, superannuation policies, mortgage, etc.)
- Written confirmation of any other dependants (i.e. children from other relationships, spouse or partner, etc.). Please provide confirmation if there are no other dependants in the Additional Notes section.
- Written names and contact phone numbers of the deceased's closest relatives and friends (up to three names – please use Additional notes section)
- A letter from the school/university/college/apprenticeship provider confirming the child/children's enrolment as a full-time student/apprentice, if the child is between the ages of 16 and 25 years.

For children of the deceased under the age of 25 years whose other parent is not a spouse or partner of the deceased, please provide:

- A copy of the children's birth certificates (not extracts)
- Copies of the deceased's taxation returns or PAYG summaries for the previous two financial years (if available at time of submission)
- A letter from Centrelink confirming the amount, type and period of benefits received by the deceased (if applicable)
- Evidence of financial dependency (i.e. copies of maintenance orders, child support agency assessment letters, school payments, trust accounts, copy of will or superannuation policy, etc.)
- Written confirmation of any other dependants (i.e. children from other relationships, spouse or permanent partner, etc.) Please provide confirmation if there are no other dependants in the Additional notes section.
- Names and contact phone numbers of the deceased's closest relatives and friends (up to three names – please use Additional notes section)
- Written confirmation of the child/children's guardian, including full name, date of birth, address, contact telephone numbers and any relevant court applications or custody orders (if applicable)
- A letter from the school/university/college/apprenticeship provider confirming the child/children's enrolment as a full-time student/apprentice, if the child is between the ages of 16 and 25 years.

Please note that certified copies of documents are not required.

In some cases the TAC will require additional information before an assessment of benefits can take place.

The TAC is able to assess a claim for dependency benefits within 7 days of receiving all of the information required.

Your privacy rights

The TAC treats all information about you as confidential. The Transport Accident Act 1986, and other legislation, regulates the collection and use of information about you. The TAC will only collect and use information that it can lawfully obtain and which is relevant to your claim and to the assessment of your benefits. The TAC will use the information requested, including any personal or health information in accordance with the Victorian Health Records Act 2001 and the Privacy and Data Protection Act, 2014. This will enable the TAC to determine whether or not you have an entitlement under the Transport Accident Act 1986. The TAC will retain the information provided and may use or disclose it to make further inquiries or assist in the ongoing management of your claim or any claim for common law damages. The TAC may also be required by law to disclose this information.

Without this information, the TAC may be unable to determine entitlements or assess whether benefits are reasonable and may not be able to approve further benefits. If you are unable to provide the TAC with any of the information requested, please let us know the reason you are unable to provide it.
